Q) Are we ISO-9001:2000 certified?

A) Only manufacturers can apply and obtain ISO-9001:2001 product quality certification. However, we are a distributor of products for manufacturers whose products are certified by this quality standard. CAT Lift Trucks and Mitsubishi Forklift Trucks supplier, headquartered in Houston, Texas, which is a leading manufacturer of material handling equipment for a wide range of industrial and commercial applications is ISO 9001:2000 quality systems certified. The facility uses high-tech fabrication methods, sophisticated supply-chain-management technologies, and advanced logistics to ensure the design, manufacture and delivery of the highest quality products.

CAT Lift Trucks and Mitsubishi Forklift Trucks recognize their dealers who also have a commitment to achieving the highest quality of excellence. CAT Lift Trucks and Mitsubishi Forklift Trucks recently recognized us with a 2005 Silver Dealer of the Year Award for our performance in the MCFA 2004 Quest for Excellence program, which measured customer satisfaction, equipment sales growth, product support growth, asset utilization and profitability. In the past, we've been honored to receive numerous Dealer of the Year, Outstanding Service and Parts Dealer of the Year awards as well.

When you're on board with us, you can be assured that you're working with top awarded and top accredited "BEST-IN-CLASS" material handling distributorship in the Midwest.
